1. Overview

Master Yacht

This guideline is for new applicants for the Master Yacht certificate of competency. It does not cover recognition of an equivalent certificate obtained outside New Zealand.

The information in this guideline covers sea service, training and other requirements for the certificate, how to apply and pay for your certificate, and where to find more information.

Once you have your Master Yacht certificate, it is valid for five years. To continue using your certificate you will need to renew it before the expiry date. For more information about the requirements for renewals (revalidation), refer to the Maritime New Zealand (Maritime NZ) website.

maritimenz.govt.nz/seafarers

The Master Yacht certificate corresponds with a certificate issued under regulation II/2 of the International Convention on the Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978, as amended (STCW).

With this certificate, you can perform the functions and duties of master on a superyacht in any operating area. A superyacht is a commercial yacht or sail training vessel that is 24 metres or more in length, less than 3000 GT and does not carry cargo or more than 12 passengers.

This is the highest-level command certificate for superyachts. To command any other type of vessel you must obtain the appropriate certificate.

Disclaimer

These guidelines provide information and explanations about the requirements set out in the maritime rules, but are not a substitute for the rules themselves, which are the law. These guidelines refer to provisions in the Maritime Rules Part 32, Seafarer Certification. The Director of Maritime New Zealand will grant a certificate only when satisfied that all requirements have been met.

In this guideline, any references to 'we' or Maritime New Zealand relating to a decision about the issue or renewal of any seafarer certificate are references to the Director or a person acting under the Director's delegated authority.

2. Requirements

Before you spend time doing sea service and training, we recommend you check that you can meet the medical fitness and eyesight standards (including for colour vision), and that you understand the fit and proper person requirements.

A summary of the requirements for this certificate is provided below. You need to meet all of these requirements to get your Master Yacht certificate.

- hold a current Chief Mate Yacht certificate of competency or equivalent
- prove you have the minimum sea service requirements for the option you choose
- complete and pass the approved qualification for Master Yacht
- have the required ancillary certificates and the STCW Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS) certificate of competency
- pass Maritime NZ's final exam
- prove that you are a fit and proper person
- be medically fit and have good eyesight.

Each of these requirements and how to prove that you meet them is explained on the following pages.

You must also have English conversation, reading and writing skills appropriate to the responsibilities and functions for the level of your certificate, so that you can satisfactorily complete training, pass examinations and discharge your duties.

2. Requirements (continued)

2.1 Prior certification and qualifications

You must hold a current Chief Mate Yacht certificate of competency or equivalent.

2.2 Sea service

Your sea service must be relevant and appropriate to the requirements set out in the maritime rules.

All your sea service must be obtained within the 10 years preceding your application.

Onboard yacht service means time spent signed on a superyacht, irrespective of vessel activity. This means your onboard yacht service must be completed on commercial yachts or sail training vessels that are 24 metres or more in length overall, less than 3000 GT and do not carry cargo or more than 12 passengers.

Sea service requirements

You can choose from two options for the sea service requirements for Master Yacht, as shown below. You must complete one of them.

Option 1

Your sea service must include:

- 240 days of watchkeeping service* on any commercial vessel AND
- at least 24 months onboard yacht service in a deck officer capacity while holding a Chief Mate Yacht or equivalent including:
 - either at least 12 months on ships >24 metres or >80 GT
 - or 6 months on ships >500 GT.

 The 240 days of watchkeeping service may be achieved as part of the 24 months.*

Option 2

Your sea service must include:

- 120 days of watchkeeping service* on any commercial vessel AND
- at least 12 months onboard yacht service in a deck officer capacity while holding a Master Yacht <500 GT or equivalent including:
 - either at least 6 months on ships >24 metres or >80 GT
 - or 3 months on ships >500 GT.

 The 120 days of watchkeeping service may be achieved as part of the 24 months.*

Watchkeeping service

Watchkeeping covers a number of tasks that enable the ship to operate continuously and safely.

Navigational watchkeeping tasks typically include:

- maintaining a lookout at all times
- ensuring the safe navigation of the ship when underway and also at anchor
- planning and conducting a passage
- determining the ship's position.

2. Requirements (continued)

Proving your sea service

You are responsible for making sure your sea service is documented and verified by your ship's master or company.

The summary of sea service form on Maritime NZ's website can be used to help keep track of your sea service (this form is not required for your certificate application).

To prove your sea service, you must provide at least one of the following documents for each vessel you have served on.

- certificate of sea service or record of employment (available on Maritime NZ's website)
- completed seafarer's record book
- discharge certificate or discharge book (ensuring that any section on watchkeeping is appropriately signed off)
- letter from your employer.

The documents you provide must contain all of the following details for each vessel you have served on:

- your employer's name and contact details
- the name, gross tonnage and type of vessel (for example, passenger, non-passenger)
- area of operation
- the vessel's length overall
- the dates you were employed and the sea time completed between those dates
- your duties and the capacities you served in
- the actual time spent on navigational watchkeeping.

Any statutory declarations you have made are generally not acceptable as proof of your sea service. However, the Director will consider these in exceptional circumstances.

You cannot claim for more days of sea service than you actually served. Extended time in port will count towards onboard yacht service, but may not count towards watchkeeping service. Time on leave will not count towards either requirement.

Sea service pre-assessment

If you are unsure about whether you have met the sea service requirements, you can ask us to assess your sea service time before you make your full application.

To have your sea service pre-assessed, you need to:

- apply for pre-assessment using Maritime NZ's pre-assessment form
- send us the documents we need (see Proving your sea service above) in order to check your sea service.

Note

If you are pre-assessed and have the required sea service for the Master Yacht certificate, add your pre-assessment reference number to your seafarer certificate application form.

If there is a delay between getting your pre-assessment completed and applying for your Master Yacht certificate, make sure your sea service was obtained within the 10 years preceding the date of your certificate application.

2. Requirements (continued)

2.3 Training

You must complete training that is acceptable to the Director of Maritime NZ to achieve all of the competencies of Section A-II/2 of the STCW Convention that the Director has approved as appropriate for this certificate.

Approved training

For Options 1 and 2, the approved training qualification for Master Yacht is the NZ Diploma in Yacht Operations Level 6 – Master Yacht strand. The diploma is available through the New Zealand Maritime School (Auckland).

Documents you must provide with your application

Requirement	Document(s) you must provide
Diploma in Yacht Operations Level 6 – Master Yacht strand	The diploma certificate showing your name and the date of issue. Alternatively, a copy of your academic transcript evidencing completion of the qualification.

For more information about approved training providers and the competency framework for Master Yacht, refer to the Maritime NZ website.

Ancillary and other certificates

You must provide copies of the ancillary certificates required for your Master Yacht training as listed below. You need to provide evidence of the certificates and any refresher courses to confirm you have demonstrated proficiency in the required skills.

Document(s) you must provide	Ancillary certificate requirements
STCW basic training	STCW basic training that complies with STCW A-VI/1 paragraph 2 and covers basic personal survival techniques (A-VI/1-1), fire prevention and fire fighting (A-VI/1-2), elementary first aid (A-VI/1-3) and personal safety and social responsibility (A-VI/1-4). This may be issued as one certificate citing the four elements or as four separate certificates
Proficiency in survival craft and rescue boats other than fast rescue boats (PISC)	STCW survival craft and rescue boats other than fast rescue boats certificate that complies with STCW Code section A-VI/2 paragraphs 1-4 (Table A-VI/2-1)
Advanced fire fighting	STCW advanced fire fighting certificate that complies with STCW Code section A-VI-3, paragraphs 1-4 (Table A-VI/3)
Medical care on board ship	STCW charge of medical care on board ship certificate that complies with STCW Code section A-VI/4-2, paragraphs 4-6
STCW Global Maritime Distress and Safety System radio operator certificate of competence (GMDSS)	Current certificate of competency as GMDSS radio operator as provided for in Maritime Rule 32.114, or recognised equivalent certificate that complies with STCW IV/2
Electronic chart display and information system (Generic ECDIS)	The certificate must state that the ECDIS training meets the STCW competency requirements of Table A-II/2. This is optional, but without it, your certificate will include the following limitation. This certificate is not valid for service on ships fitted with ECDIS.
Security awareness	STCW security awareness complies with the STCW Code Table A-VI/6-1. This is optional, but without it, your certificate will include the following limitation. This certificate is not valid for use on ships for which the ISPS code applies without a current proficiency in security awareness training (STCW A-VI/6-1).
A ships security officer certificate or Security awareness for seafarers with designated security duties certificate may be accepted as an alternative	The alternative must state that it meets the requirements of STCW Section A-VI/6 and Table A-VI/6-2

If you already have an ancillary certificate that demonstrates proficiency in the areas listed above and at the required level, you may use it – as long as the certificate is current and specific requirements are met.

Your certificates must also conform to the STCW regulations and have the appropriate STCW regulation number.

The following ancillary certificates must be less than five years old from the date of issue when we issue your Master Yacht certificate.

- STCW Basic – Personal survival techniques
- STCW Basic – Fire prevention and fire fighting
- Proficiency in survival craft
- Advanced fire fighting

Acceptance of overseas STCW training

For STCW basic training, we will accept certificates issued by any training provider that is approved by any country on the STCW white list.

For the STCW advanced training, we will accept ancillary certificates issued by any training provider that is approved by a flag state which has a memorandum of understanding with Maritime NZ.

Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS) certificate

Before we can issue your Master Yacht certificate, you must provide Maritime NZ with proof that you meet the requirements to be issued with a GMDSS certificate of competency as a specialist radio operator that complies with STCW regulation IV/2.

GMDSS training is included with the NZ Diploma in Yacht Operations (Level 5) – Master Yacht strand. Your training provider should issue you with the required documentation for you to apply for your GMDSS certificate of competency. You can apply for your GMDSS and Master Yacht certificates at the same time.

The documents that prove you meet the requirements include a course completion letter and a general operator certificate (GOC) as a radio operator (issued under the Radiocommunications Act 1989 or an equivalent under the international Radio Regulations). Information about how to obtain your GMDSS certificate is available on Maritime NZ's website.

If you already hold a GMDSS certificate, it must be valid at the time of applying for your Master Yacht certificate.

If you have a GMDSS certificate from a foreign country, refer to the recognition of non- New Zealand STCW certificates guidelines to see if it is from one of the listed issuing countries whose certificates we will accept.

2. Requirements (continued)

2.4 Final examination

After you have completed the approved training you must sit and pass the final examination.

This examination must be conducted by a Maritime NZ approved examiner. The examination checks that you have met the standards of competency of Section A-II/1 of the STCW Convention approved by the Director as appropriate for this certificate.

The final examination is currently an oral examination. It is usually organised by your training provider when you have completed all the requirements for the award of the NZ Diploma in Yacht Operations Level 6 – Master Yacht strand qualification.

If you have completed a training record book, you will also need to provide this to the examiner before you attend your examination.

2.5 Fit and proper person

We need to confirm that you are a fit and proper person. To help us do this, we need the following documents from you.

Requirement	Document(s) you must provide
Be a fit and proper person	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A completed fit and proper person form, which must have been signed and dated no more than three months before we receive your application.• A police clearance report for any country or countries outside New Zealand that you have lived in for 12 months or longer in the past five years (covering the entire period you lived in that country or countries).

	Steps to freedom form

3. When and how to apply

Apply when you have completed all of the certificate requirements. Once we have received all of the information we need from you, it may take us up to 20 working days to process your application, so send it in as soon as possible (and at least one month before you need your certificate).

Make sure you include all of the documents we have asked for. Refer to 3.4 Checklist to make sure you have everything you need for your application.

Note

If your application is incomplete, it will not be processed and we will return your application and other documents to you.

3.1 Copies of supporting documents

We only need copies of your supporting documents, not the original versions.

For the fit and proper person form you need to include sighted and signed copies of the ID documents specified.

3.2 Fees

There is a fee for your application. Refer to the Maritime NZ website for information about fees.

maritimenz.govt.nz/fees

There is a separate application fee for a GMDSS certificate (if required).

You will be invoiced once we have formally received your application. A reference number and instructions explaining how to pay will be sent with the invoice.

You can pay:

- online using a credit card or debit card, or
- by internet banking or bank deposit.

Refer to the Maritime NZ website for more information about how to pay your fees.

maritimenz.govt.nz/howtopay

Other costs

As well as the application fee, you will have other fees and expenses to pay. For example, you may need to pay for your eyesight tests, medical examination, training and ancillary courses.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

3.3 Application process

This is the application process for this certificate of competency. Complete each step before you move on to the next one.

1 Do you meet all the requirements?

You need to check that you meet all of the requirements for this certificate.

Apply for pre-assessment of your sea service time if you are unsure about meeting the sea service requirements.

2 Do you have the documents we need?

You need to prove that you meet the requirements. Include all of the documents we have asked for with your application form. Use the checklist to help you (see 3.4. Checklist).

Remember we need copies, not the originals.

3 Send us your application by courier or email

There are two options for you to send your application:

1. Send your application by email, attaching the scanned documents.
The application form has information about the requirements for electronic copies.
2. Use a courier to send us your completed application forms and supporting documents.

The addresses are on the application form.

4 Confirmation and/or request sent

We will send you an email or letter to confirm that we have received your application and advise you of any documents we need from you before we can assess your application.

We must receive your payment before we can finalise your application.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

5 Assessment and payment of application fee

Once you have sent us all the documents we need, we will assess your application and make a decision. This will usually take 20 working days (about a month) from the time we let you know that we have received your application.

We will send you an invoice with your reference number and information on how to pay the application fee once we begin the assessment. Please note we cannot release your certificate unless payment has been received.

6 Issue certificate

We will send you:

- your certificate, if your application has been successful, or
- a letter or email explaining why your application was unsuccessful.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

3.4 Checklist

Use this checklist to make sure that you have everything you need for your application.

Check that your documents are complete and have been signed, dated and sighted as required.

We need to see all of the documents listed below to confirm that you have met each requirement.

- Seafarer certificate application form* (remember to sign in the boxes)
- Two passport-sized photos or an electronic copy
- Fit and proper person form* including sighted and signed copies of the ID documents specified
- Police clearance report for other countries (if applicable)
- Copy of certificate of medical fitness for seafarers
- Evidence of your Chief Mate Yacht certificate of competency or equivalent
- Evidence of your sea service
- Your pre-assessment reference number if we pre-assessed your sea service time
- Evidence of your approved training (NZ Diploma in Yacht Operations (Level 6) – Master Yacht strand)
- Copy of your ancillary certificates
- Copy of your GMDSS certificate or GMDSS application
