1. Overview

Mate Fishing Vessel – Unlimited (MFV-U) certificate of competency

This guideline is for new applicants for the certificate of competency for Mate Fishing Vessel – Unlimited. It does not cover recognition of an equivalent certificate obtained outside New Zealand.

The information in this guideline covers sea service, training and other requirements for the certificate, how to apply and pay for your certificate, and where to find more information.

Once you have your MFV-U certificate, it is valid for five years. To continue using your certificate you will need to renew it before the expiry date. For more information about the requirements for recognition and renewal (revalidation) of your MFV-U certificate, refer to the Maritime New Zealand (Maritime NZ) website.

maritimenz.govt.nz/seafarers

The MFV-U certificate is issued under Subpart D of Maritime Rules Part 32 – National (STCW-F aligned) certificates. It corresponds with a certificate issued under Regulation II/2 (chapter 2 regulation 2) of the International Convention on the Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Fishing Vessel Personnel (STCW-F).

With this certificate, you can perform the functions and duties of a mate on fishing vessels of any size in any operating area.

From MFV-U, you can progress to Skipper Fishing Vessel – Unlimited.

Disclaimer

These guidelines provide information and explanations about the requirements set out in the maritime rules, but are not a substitute for the rules themselves, which are the law. These guidelines refer to provisions in the Maritime Rules Part 32, Seafarer Certification. The Director of Maritime New Zealand will grant a certificate only when satisfied that all requirements have been met.

In this guideline, any references to ‘we’ or Maritime New Zealand relating to a decision about the issue or renewal of any seafarer certificate are references to the Director or a person acting under the Director’s delegated authority.

2. Requirements

Before you spend time doing sea service and training, we recommend you check that you can meet the medical fitness and eyesight standards (including for colour vision), and that you understand the fit and proper person requirements.

To get this certificate, you need to prove that you meet all of the requirements. In summary, you need to:

- prove that you have met the minimum sea service requirements
- complete and pass the approved qualification for MFV-U
- have the required ancillary certificates and the STCW Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS) certificate of competency
- pass Maritime NZ's final exam
- prove that you are a fit and proper person
- be medically fit and have good eyesight
- be at least 18 years old.

Each of these requirements and how to prove that you meet them is explained on the following pages.

You must also have English conversation, reading and writing skills appropriate to the responsibilities and functions for the level of your certificate, so that you can satisfactorily complete training, pass examinations and discharge your duties.

2. Requirements (continued)

2.1 Prior certification and qualifications

No prior certification or qualifications are required for this certificate of competency.

2.2 Sea service

Your sea service must be relevant and appropriate to the requirements set out in the maritime rule.

In practice, this means that your sea service must be in the deck department on fishing vessels of 12 metres or more in length.

Sea service requirements

The sea service requirement is a minimum of 24 months.

All of your sea service must be completed in the 10 years immediately before you apply for the certificate.

Proving your sea service

You are responsible for making sure your sea service is documented and verified by your ship's master or company.

To prove your sea service, you must provide at least one of the following documents for each vessel you have served on:

- certificate of sea service or a record of employment (available on Maritime NZ's website)
- completed seafarer's record book
- discharge certificate or discharge book (ensuring that any section on watchkeeping is appropriately signed off)
- a letter from your employer.

Each of the documents you provide for each vessel must contain:

- your employer's name and contact details
- the name, gross tonnage details and type of vessel (for example, passenger, non-passenger, fishing)
- the area of operation
- the vessel's length overall
- the dates you were employed and the sea time completed between those dates
- your duties and the capacities you served in.

Any statutory declarations you have made are generally not acceptable as proof of your sea service. However, the Director will consider these in exceptional circumstances.

2. Requirements (continued)

Calculating sea service for voyages of 24 hours or more

Relevant qualifying sea service is expected to be on voyages of 24 hours or more, calculated as follows:

- from the sign-on date of starting work on the ship to the sign-off date of discharge (both dates are inclusive)
- by counting each whole calendar month during this period as one month
- for multiple voyages, by adding together extra days that do not fall within a calendar month, with each addition of 30 days to be calculated as one month.

Extended time in port is generally not counted as sea service, and nor is time on leave.

Note

Voyage means a voyage between a port or place of departure and a ship's final port or place of arrival. It includes any period of 24 hours (or more) where you are signed on or employed on the vessel and you remain on board.

For example: If your service record shows your sign-on date as 3 March and sign-off date as 14 April, your sea service would be calculated as one month (3 March to 2 April) and 12 days (from 3 to 14 April inclusive).

Calculating sea service for voyages of less than 24 hours

Sea service on voyages of less than 24 hours is calculated by counting the number of months made up of days, as follows:

- by counting each period of eight (or more) hours worked within each period of 24 hours as one day's service
- by counting periods of more than eight hours at a rate of more than one day (may be expressed in decimal points) at the Director's discretion, if the Director is satisfied that there are suitable policies and processes in place to manage fatigue
- by counting each additional 20 days (or more) in one month as one month's sea service.

In cases where sea service is accrued and recorded in hours (for example, day work):

- each additional 160 hours (or more) in one month counts as one month's sea service
- where insufficient hours are accrued in a period of 30 days, additional hours may be accrued until 160 hours have been reached. This can then be counted as one month's sea service.

You cannot claim for more days of sea service than you actually served. Extended time in port is generally not counted as sea service, and nor is time on leave.

For more information about calculating your sea service, refer to the Maritime NZ website.

2. Requirements (continued)

Sea service pre-assessment

If you are unsure about whether you have met the sea service requirements, you can ask us to assess your sea service time before you make your full application. To have your sea service pre-assessed, you need to:

- apply for pre-assessment using Maritime NZ's pre-assessment form
- send us the documents we need (see Proving your sea service above) in order to check your sea service.

Note

If you are pre-assessed and have the required sea service for the MFV-U certificate, add your pre-assessment reference number to your seafarer certificate application form.

2.3 Training

You must complete training that is acceptable to the Director of Maritime NZ to achieve all of the required competencies for this certificate as set out in Regulation II/2 of the STCW-F convention.

Approved training

The approved training for MFV-U is the New Zealand Diploma in Fishing Vessel Operations (Level 6). This diploma is available through the International Maritime Institute of New Zealand (Nelson).

For more information about approved training providers and the MFV-U competency framework, refer to the Maritime NZ website.

maritimenz.govt.nz/seafarers

Documents you must provide with your application

Requirement	Document(s) you must provide
New Zealand Diploma in Fishing Vessel Operations (Level 6)	The diploma certificate showing your name and the date of issue. Alternatively, a copy of your academic transcript evidencing completion of the qualification.

Ancillary and other certificates

You must provide copies of the ancillary and other certificates you gained as part of your MFV-U training as listed below. You need to provide evidence of the certificates and any refresher courses to confirm you have demonstrated proficiency in the required skills.

Ancillary certificate requirements	Document(s) you must provide
STCW-F basic training	STCW-F basic training that complies with STCW-F chapter III regulation 1 and covers basic personal survival techniques, fire prevention and fire fighting, emergency procedures, elementary first aid, prevention of marine pollution and prevention of shipboard accidents Alternatively, we will accept an STCW certificate of proficiency in basic training (which complies with STCW A-VI/1 paragraph 2) as meeting these requirements

If you already have an ancillary certificate that demonstrates proficiency in the areas listed above and at the required level.

Your certificates must also conform to the STCW regulations and have the appropriate STCW regulation number.

Acceptance of overseas STCW training

For STCW and STCW-F basic training, we will accept certificates issued by any training provider that is approved by any country on the STCW white list.

For the STCW advanced training, we will accept ancillary certificates issued by any training provider that is approved by a flag state which has a memorandum of understanding with Maritime NZ.

2. Requirements (continued)

Global Maritime Distress and Safety System (GMDSS) certificate

Before we can issue your MFV-U certificate, you must provide Maritime NZ with proof that you meet the requirements to be issued with a GMDSS certificate of competency as a specialist radio operator that complies with STCW regulation IV/2.

You will need to complete GMDSS training, including obtaining a course completion letter and a maritime general operator certificate (MGOC) as a radio operator (issued under the Radiocommunications Act 1989 or an equivalent under the international Radio Regulations). Information about how to obtain your GMDSS certificate is available on Maritime NZ's website.

maritimenz.govt.nz/seafarers

If you already hold a GMDSS certificate, it must be valid at the time of applying for your MFV-U certificate.

If you have a GMDSS certificate from a foreign country, refer to the recognition of non-New Zealand STCW certificates guidelines to see if it is from one of the listed issuing countries whose certificates we will accept.

2.4 Final examination

After you have completed the approved training you must sit and pass the final examination.

This examination must be conducted by a Maritime NZ approved examiner. The examination checks that you have met the standards of competency specified in Regulation II/2 of the STCW-F Convention.

The final examination is currently an oral examination. It is usually organised by your training provider when you have completed all the requirements for the award of the New Zealand Diploma in Fishing Vessel Operations (Level 6) qualification.

2.5 Fit and proper person

We need to confirm that you are a fit and proper person. To help us do this, we need the following documents from you.

Requirement	Document(s) you must provide

3. When and how to apply

Apply when you have completed all of the certificate requirements. Once we have received all of the information we need from you, it may take us up to 20 working days to process your application, so send it in as soon as possible (and at least one month before you need your certificate).

Make sure you include all of the documents we have asked for. Refer to the checklist at 3.4 to make sure you have everything you need for your application.

Note

If your application is incomplete, it will not be processed and we will return your application and other documents to you.

3.1 Copies of supporting documents

We only need copies of your supporting documents, not the original versions.

For the fit and proper person form you need to include sighted and signed copies of the ID documents specified.

3.2 Fees

There is a fee for your application. Refer to the Maritime NZ website for information about fees.

maritimenz.govt.nz/fees

You will be invoiced once we have formally received your application. A reference number and instructions explaining how to pay will be sent with the invoice.

You can pay:

- online using a credit card or debit card, or
- by internet banking or bank deposit.

Refer to the Maritime NZ website for more information about how to pay your fees.

maritimenz.govt.nz/howtopay

As well as the application fee, you may have other fees and expenses to pay. For example, you may need to pay for your eyesight tests, medical examination, training and ancillary courses.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

3.3 Application process

This is the application process for this certificate of competency. Complete each step before you move on to the next one.

1 Do you meet all the requirements?

You need to check that you meet all of the requirements for this certificate.

Apply for pre-assessment of your sea service time if you are unsure about meeting the sea service requirements.

2 Do you have the documents we need?

You need to prove that you meet the requirements. Include all of the documents we have asked for with your application form. Use the checklist to help you (see 3.4. Checklist).

Remember we need copies, not the originals.

3 Send us your application by courier or email

There are two options for you to send your application:

1. Send your application by email, attaching the scanned documents.
The application form has information about the requirements for electronic copies.
2. Use a courier to send us your completed application forms and supporting documents.

The addresses are on the application form.

4 Confirmation and/or request sent

We will send you an email or letter to confirm that we have received your application and advise you of any documents we need from you before we can assess your application.

We must receive your payment before we can finalise your application.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

5 Assessment and payment of application fee

Once you have sent us all the documents we need, we will assess your application and make a decision. This will usually take 20 working days (about a month) from the time we let you know that we have received your application.

We will send you an invoice with your reference number and information on how to pay the application fee once we begin the assessment. Please note we cannot release your certificate unless payment has been received.

6 Issue certificate

We will send you:

- your certificate, if your application has been successful, or
- a letter or email explaining why your application was unsuccessful.

3. When and how to apply (continued)

3.4 Checklist

Use this checklist to make sure that you have everything you need for your application.

Check that your documents are complete and have been signed, dated and certified as required.

- Seafarer certificate application form*
- Two passport-sized photos or an electronic copy
- Fit and proper person form* - including sighted and signed copies of the ID documents specified
- Police clearance report for other countries (if applicable)
- Copy of certificate of medical fitness for seafarers
- Evidence of your sea service
- Your pre-assessment reference number if we pre-assessed your sea service time
- Evidence of your approved training NZ Diploma in Fishing Vessel Operations (Level 6)
- Copy of your ancillary and GMDSS certificates
